XLRI'S Ensemble 2016 organises the largest school quiz in Jamshedpur

Jamshedpur, Nov. 25: The brightest young brains of Jamshedpur converged at XLRI campus for "Back to the Roots", a quizzing extravaganza organized by banner of Ensemble 2016, the biggest management festival of the country, in the second week of November. The quiz was held in the historic Tata Auditorium with more than 170 enthusiastic school students from 24 schools of Jamshedpur, cheering 50 teams of three members each, representing their schools in this ultimate combat for glory.

There were quite a few different rounds of questions, which gave opportu-nity to all the avid young quizzers to try out their skill. The audience and the participants loved the quiz-masters Yugal and Tarun alike for engaging them and enthralling them with their quizzing genius and witty

Jharkhand invites BRICS countries for investment

Ranchi: Jharkhand government on Wednesday invited BRICS countries to invest in "the mineral capital of the country". Addressing the BRICS Conference-2016 at Pragati Maidan in New Delhi, Jharkhand Secretary (Industry, Mines & Geology) Sunil Kumar Barnwal said, "With home to 42 per cent of mineral resources, Jharkhand is mineral capital of India," an official release said quoting him.

He invited all delegates of BRICS countries to invest in the state, which has enormous opportunity in transmission, medico city, power substation and smart city.

"We have prestigious institutes like XLRI, ISM Dhanbad, BIT and IIM," Barnwal said.

The growth rate of the "politically stable" state is 12.4 per cent, the second in the country, Barnwal said.

He referred to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's statement that in the development of the country, eastern part of the nation was most important, and in the eastern part, Jharkhand has a major role. PTI

France eyes energy sector

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

France is keen to explore Jharkhand's potential right from industry to education. Calcutta-based French consul-general Damien Syed, who visited Jamshedpur for the first time on Thursday, said that they would explore business opportunities with Jharkhand in the renewable energy sector. He had also accepted chief minister Raghubar Das's invitation for participating in the Global Investors' Summit slated to be held in Ranchi in February next year.

"It will be our priority as France is a leading country in renewable energy," Syed told the media, while referring to possibilities of business tieups, at Centre for Excellence in Bistupur on Thursday. Syed, who met chief minisand the legislative provisions for accountability is, there will always be a place for value addition from the national culture, corporate ethos and personal character. There is a need to create the right corporate ethos and an appropriate environment, particularly in a country which was ranked 130 in the World Bank Group's ease of doing business index for 2016," said the professor.

"There are piecemeal international developments, which should assist Indian citizens and decision makers at the cabinet table and in board rooms to make better informed choices, as per your religion, tradition, corporate culture and noblest of senses," Fr Brennan concluded.
